2008 Thai SEDP Training Group Visited the National Governors' Association

On Wednesday, July 9, four governors and vice-governors from the Kingdom of Thailand led by Satun Province Governor Kwanchai Wongnitikorn visited the National Governors' Association as part of the Kingdom of Thailand SEDP (Senior Executive Development Program) Training Program.

On the day, Gifu Prefecture Governor Hajime Furuta provided a lecture on the activities of local public agencies by providing a case from Gifu Prefecture's project as one example.

Then, Gifu Prefecture Governor Furuta put questions to the governors and vice-governors of Thailand regarding how they attract tourists and about the export of the agricultural products, where an active exchange of views was conducted.
